

FRIDAY OCTOBER 13

8:00 - 9:00

9:10 - 10:10

10:20 - 11:20

11:30 - 12:30

Room 101A	Mesophotic Coral Ecosystems of the western Gulf of Mexico	Seagrass and People- Who is going to win?	From rock dams to plant monitoring: what Joint Venture partnerships can offer Master Naturalists.
Room 101B	iNaturalist Train the Trainer Workshop		Growth And Reproduction in Gulf of Mexico Black Corals (Antipatharians) in Field and Laboratory Stud
Room 101C	Student-Centered Learning: Brought to You by the Letter E	Use of Wildlife and Wildlife Parts in Education: How to be Legal and Compliant as a Wildlife Educator	Phenomenally WILD Connecting Kids with Cameras and Nature
Room 102A	Look, Listen, and Learn!		Screech Owls, Owl Boxes, and Owl Cameras
Room 102B	The Dark Eyed Junco: Six Birds Rolled Into One		Spring Migration Through South Padre Island Wild Parrots of the Rio Grande Valley
Room 102C	High School Students Using Chemistry to Solve an Environmental Problem	Texas High School Coastal Monitoring Program	Teaching about Butterflies by The Butterfly Learning Center, an Alamo Area Master Naturalist Project Rewarding Excellence in Youth Research
Room 103A	Chasing Monarchs	Eighteen is Enough - A Monarch Parenting Adventure	Gardening for Caterpillars Uncovering Cryptic Critters: Tips and Tricks for Finding Caterpillars
Room 103B	Prairie Seekers Training Program	Beef, Burns, and Bobwhites: Wildlife Compatible Grazing	The Plague of Invasive Grasses: Is the Party Over? Herbivores, honey buns, and the Golden Corral: Why plant diversity is crucial in nutrition
Room 103C	Texas Mammals and Their Adaptations to Survive	Living in Harmony with America's Song Dog Endangered Species in Texas and How You can Help
Room 103D	Bring New Audiences State Parks!	TEAMgo Wild with Texas Parks and Wildlife	Collecting Scientific Botanical (Herbarium) Specimens
Boardroom 1	Restoring Native Prairie Habitat on Public Land		Native Plants & Their Role Within Municipal Water Reuse You Can't Plant That! Encouraging Native Landscapes in HOA Neighborhoods
Boardroom 2	Conservation Communication Best Practices	Artful Description Interspersed with Educational Information Crafting Master Naturalist Stories: Outreach Writing Tips & Editing Tricks	